

JOB SUMMARY

Shift Fitter

Sugar Industry Classification:	Up to Level C7 (depending on experience and training)
Position Purpose
This position reports to the Shift Supervisor and is responsible for maintaining and repairing factory electrical and processes control systems.
Duties of this position include, but are not limited to:
Working under Workplace Health and Safety guidelines.

- Attending and rectifying any plant breakdowns.
- Maintain mechanical plant to ensure downtime is minimised as far as practical.
- Ensure all required plant checks are undertaken.
- Supervise personal as required.

Qualifications / Licences / Tickets

Essential:

- Trade Qualifications
- Current Driver's Licence

Desirable:

- Confined Space
- Working at Heights
- Rigging, Dogging or Scaffolding
- Mobile plant
- Steam plant

Training

Satisfactory completion of internal on-the-job training in plant and equipment.

Physical Requirements

- Ability to perform work while wearing appropriate PPE (e.g. long clothing, hearing, eye protection, etc.)
- Ability to work in a hot, moist environment.
- Ability to perform work in a standing position for long periods in a vibrating environment.
- Ability to walk and climb stairs regularly as well as the ability to bend and work with back hunched for short periods.
- Ability to lift and carry loads in accordance with the Manual Tasks Advisory Standard 2000.
- Hearing ability to hear and differentiate radio and phone communications and alarms in a noisy environment.
- Eyesight ability to satisfy the vision requirements for a Qld Driver's Licence.

Other Criteria

Essential:

- Safety focused
- Ability to work a continuous shift roster
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Self-motivated
- Ability to work in a team environment
- Basic computer skills required to use computer based system
- Ability to train other personnel.

Desirable:

- Experience in the sugar industry
- Previous experience with operating plant or part of a process